

ANSWER TRICKY INTERVIEW QUESTIONS

IN THIS SESSION WE WILL LEARN ABOUT:

- Tips for giving the best response.
- What not to say while answering.
- Most asked tricky questions.

WHAT THE
INTERVIEWER REALLY WANTS TO KNOW!

The Interviewers know that you have prepared the traditional questions , so they try to stump you with trickier ones.

Interviewers ask situational questions in an interview to assess a candidate's problem-solving abilities, decision-making skills, and their aptitude for handling real-life scenarios that may arise in the workplace.

These questions provide insights into how a candidate thinks, reasons, and responds to challenging situations, offering a glimpse into their problem-solving approach and their ability to remain composed under pressure.

What Not To Say In An Interview?

- Dishonest or exaggerated information about your qualifications.
- Avoid saying, "I don't have any questions." Instead, show interest and engagement by asking thoughtful and relevant questions about the company, role, or team to further demonstrate your enthusiasm and curiosity.
- Irrelevant personal details or oversharing.
- Avoid saying "I don't know" in an interview.
- Negative comments about previous employers or colleagues.
- Speaking too casually or using slang language.
- Salary expectations or benefits discussion too early.

MOST OFTEN ASKED QUESTIONS IN AN INTERVIEW

- 1 Why should we hire you?
- 2 What is your greatest weakness?
- 3 What can you bring to the company?

- 4 Where do you see yourself in next five years?
- 5 What can you bring to the company?
- 6 Do you have any questions for us?

